AFRICAN ECONOMIC HISTORY

Edited by George Bob-Milliar, Mariana Candido,
Toyin Falola, Toby Green, and Chétima Melchisedek
ISSN 0145-2258, eISSN 2163-9108 | 2x per year

African Economic History publishes scholarly essays in English, French, and Portuguese on the economic history of African societies from precolonial times to the present. It features research in a variety of fields and time periods, including studies on labor, slavery, trade and commercial networks, economic transformations, colonialism, migration, development policies, social and economic inequalities, and poverty. The audience includes historians, economists, anthropologists, sociologists, political scientists, policymakers, and a range of other scholars interested in African economies—past and present.
